

LATEST NEWS for ARGENTINA from Anglia Ascentis ESOL Examinations & Macmillan

Due to popular demand from a large number of EFL teachers of all walks of life, we are very proud to announce that both our organisations are now working in close collaboration with each other. As of the next November/ December exam session in Argentina, candidates sitting one of the following four levels within the Anglia Ascentis ESOL Examinations General English series will have the opportunity to choose one OPTIONAL Macmillan READER-BASED TASK* when taking the speaking component at ELEMENTARY, PRE-INTERMEDIATE, INTERMEDIATE or ADVANCED Level.

- For further information about how to prepare for the optional reader-based tasks in the speaking tests of the Anglia Ascentis ESOL Examinations, visit www.angliaexams.com/04guidelines.html
- For a full list of the Macmillan Graded Readers selected for all four levels of the Anglia Ascentis ESOL Examinations, refer to pages 11 - 16 on www.angliaexams.com/files/TheAngliaGuide2010\(headed\).pdf.pdf)

If you would like to receive a FREE copy of the Using Graded Readers in the Classroom Booklet, please send a request email to info@angliaexams.com.

Finishing a book in another language will give students a real sense of achievement and will motivate them to go on reading more and more.

Improved teachers & student site with free support material available from Readers Online at www.macmillanenglish.com/readers

The Macmillan reader-based tasks are optional and those candidates not wishing to take these, are simply asked to perform a replacement non-reader based task instead.*
